BUBBLES

Sparkling wine is produced around the world and is best suited for cooler growing regions. Styles range from light, fruity and lean to rich, creamy, lush and complex.

15.10

- 1 NV Brut, Gruner Veltliner, Szigeti, Neusiedlersee, Austria 11.25 / 4.75
Crisp, juicy green apples, tiny bubbles and a delicious lime curd finish.
- 2 NV Brut, Chenin Blanc, Taberero, Peru 8.25 / 3.50
This elegant and silky smooth little gem took us by surprise. Gorgeous bright citrus notes surrounded by juicy white peach flavors make this a real keeper.
- 3 NV Brut Cava, Xarello/Parellada/Macabeo, 1+1=3, Spain 9.00 / 3.75
This is to write home about! Rich, luxe, melon and racy. lemon-lime notes add plenty of interest to this hand-harvested, estate-grown sparkler.
- 4 NV Brut Cava, Garnacha/ Monastrell, Gran Sarao, Spain 7.00 / 3.10
We're celebrating, and you're invited! Raise a glass of juicy cherries, cranberry and orange scented tea notes.

EXPRESS YOURSELF

This impressively versatile group of white wines are far from shy, and would never be accused of bashful restraint. Their inherent vibrancy could easily be mistaken for showmanship. Their message becomes crystal clear with food.

13.40

- 5 2009 Sauvignon Blanc, BIN 36, Mauritson Vineyards, Dry Creek Valley, California 8.00 / 3.90
My favorite new lip smacking sipper! Deliciously juicy and fresh with mouth-filling grapefruit, melon and green apple.
- 6 2010 Torrontes, Gougenheim, Argentina 7.00 / 2.95
Heady white flowers, tropical pineapple and melon charmed the socks off of us! Let it work it's magic on you.
- 7 2010 Pinot Gris, Willowcrest Winery, Yakima Valley, Washington 7.00 / 2.95
If this wine were a movie, it would be in Technicolor! Vivid pear, bright green apples and a round, juicy presence that asserts itself with loads of charm.
- 8 2010 Pinot Grigio, Colterenzio, Fruilli, Italy 8.50 / 3.60
This wine walks right up to you and yells, "Summer!" Light, crisp and elegant.

OFF THE BEATEN PATH

We have scoured the furthest corners of the wine world to uncover the unusual, the unique...the delicious! If you are looking for something truly different, get started here.

16.00

- 9 2009 Moschofilero/Roditis, Gai'A, "Notios," Peloponnese, Greece 9.75 / 4.25
Orange blossom, hints of beeswax, and orange zest make this a very exotic blend. When we figured out it was amazing with cheese, we fell in love.
- 10 2010 Gruner Veltliner, Weingut Leth, "Lengenreserve Steinagrund," Wagram, Austria 10.00 / 4.40
Juicy and delicious round flavors of citrus and stone fruit with a snappy mineral finish
- 11 2009 Favorita, Piero Marrone, Langhe, Italy 8.25 / 3.50
This wine doesn't fool around. Spritzzy, with compelling mineral, almond and floral notes.
- 12 2010 Viognier, Vina Tabali, "Reserve," Limari Valley, Chile 8.25 / 3.80
Lush Life! Everything about this wine is big! Plump peaches, vivid white flowers and beeswax are balanced by lively acidity and a sexy, silky finish.

SUMMER OF RIESLING

Dry, sweet and in-between, we are enchanted by this changling grape, and we have devoted a whole flight to its study. Frankly, learning has never been so delicious.

15.45

- 13 2009 Sky Leaf, Waipara Valley, New Zealand 6.75 / 2.90
A racy, elegant and zesty dry Riesling, chock full of lime peel and passion fruit.
- 14 2008 Chateau D'Orschwihr, "Bollenberg," Alsace, France 10.00 / 4.40
Wet rocks, chalk, lime peel and petrol make this a classic example of what the French like to do with Riesling.
- 15 2008 Amity Vineyards, Willamette Valley, Oregon 10.00 / 4.40
One of the best kept secrets about Riesling is that it ages very well. This orange peel and white flower stunner just keeps getting better with each passing year.
- 16 2009 E. Clusserath, "Mosel St.," Mosel-Saar-Ruwer, Germany 8.75 / 3.75
Jubilant, a touch sweet, and packed with apples, white peaches and lime. This wine is just darn delicious

POUR SOME SUGAR ON ME...

Sometimes you've got to satisfy your sweet side! These succulent sippers run the gamut from racy to full bodied beauties. But, they all have one thing in common - a love for food that just won't quit.

15.25

- 17 2009 Trebbiano, Bigi, "Amabile," Orvieto, Italy 6.75 / 2.90
Mouth-watering peaches and black licorice all rolled up into a delicious package.
- 18 NV Vignoles/Chardonnay, Sharpe Hill Vineyards, "Ballet of Angels," Connecticut 10.00 / 4.40
Tropical, lush and just a touch sweet, this unusual blend is a blue cheese's best friend.
- 19 2010 Gewurztraminer, Banyan, Monterey, California 9.50 / 4.20
A honey, lychee and floral nose is just a preview! The big show? Lots of marmalade, lively, mouth-watering texture and a complete long-lasting finish.
- 20 2009 Sec, Chenin Blanc, Jean Ernest, Vouvray, Loire Valley, France 9.00 / 3.75
Nothing is better with goat cheese than this semi-sweet, lively glass of peaches and freshly mown grass.

SOUTHERN HEMISPHERE

Our friends Down Under are well known for their skill with red wines. But there's much more going on "down there" than you may realize. White wines from Australia and New Zealand are growing in popularity, and South African wines are better than ever!

14.90

- 21 2010 Sauvignon Blanc, Allan Scott, Marlborough, "Daisy Hill," New Zealand 9.25 / 4.20
Kiwi, hints of pineapple and fresh cut grass are knit together with seamless precision and a round, juicy finish to boot!
- 22 2009 Arneis/Chardonnay, First Drop, "The White One," South Australia 8.75 / 3.75
When we tasted this rich, creamy, weighty blend, we fell in love. The toasty, subtle oak, the hints of almonds and the ripe, green apples keep us smitten.
- 23 2009 Pinotage, Six Hats, Western Cape, South Africa 7.00 / 2.95
This is the Pinotage that changed our minds! Intense, fruity vanilla, ripe strawberries, and intense plums make this the only Pinotage we've ever loved.
- 24 2009 Shiraz, Raw Power, Adelaide Plains, Australia 9.00 / 4.00
Toasty oak, fat blackberries and coffee...classic Shiraz.

6oz / 2.5oz

THINK PINK

We love pink wines! Bright, racy, elegant, bubbly and still...the variety is astounding, and summer is just better with a rose!

16.25

- 25 2010 Azal Tinto/Brracal/Vinhao, Castal Garcia, Vinho Verde, Portugal 5.00 / 2.25
This lightly sparkling, bone-dry rose with cranberry notes is delightful!
- 26 2010 Grenache/Cinsault/Syrah/Cabernet Sauvignon, Chateau Revelette, Coteux d'Aix en Provence, France 9.00 / 3.75
Classic southern French pink stuffed with bright cherries, wild herbs and spicy orange zest.
- 27 2010 Sangiovese, Alexander Valley Vineyards, California 9.00 / 3.75
A more robust way to see pink. This deeply colored vino is full of hints of black spice, cherries and bergamot.
- 28 2001 Chardonnay/Pinot Noir, Bin 36, "10th Anniversary Cuvee," Monterey, California 15.75 / 6.50
- Who says pink doesn't get better with age? We're celebrating more than 10 years and you're invited! Raise a toasty, nutty glass and enjoy.

THE BIN 36 FLIGHT

Take a BIN 36 style trip to California! We've shopped the coast, nabbed great fruit to produce these laid back, easy-drinking wines for indoor and outdoor fun. You'll share these all year round with family, friends and soon to be friends.

16.60

- 29 2009 Chardonnay, BIN 36, Central Coast, California 8.00 / 3.90
This offering expresses an array of flavors that will make your mouth do back flips and question everything you thought Chardonnay could be, or ever was.
- 30 2007 Pinot Noir, BIN 36, Monterey, California 10.00 / 4.90
So Sexy! Silky smooth with a gorgeous texture, elegantly enticing rose petals, red currants, black tea and earthy cherries.
- 31 2006 Syrah, BIN 36, California 8.00 / 3.90
We love this syrah - and not just because it has our name on it. This wine is plump and round with plum scented berries, hints of smoke, earthy minerals and leather.
- 32 2006 Zinfandel, BIN 36, California 8.00 / 3.90
Elegantly-styled with juicy, ripe blackberries, black pepper and rich dark chocolate.

LEFT COAST REDS

From North to South, our friends up and down the Pacific Coast are doing some amazing things. We love the classics. Enjoy them here showcased next to some unusual blends that will really turn your head.

19.60

- 33 2008 Pinot Noir, Emerson Vineyards, Willamette Valley, Oregon 12.00 / 5.40
Blueberries, ripe strawberries, graphite and plum tell the story of what it's like to be a pinot noir growing up in Oregon. It's a lighter and brighter version of its California neighbor.
- 34 2009 Pinot Noir/Merlot/Cabernet Sauvignon, Purple Hands, Oregon 12.00 / 5.40
Holy unusual blends, Batman! The pinot brings the elegant cranberries, the cabernet and merlot bring the structure and substance. And, they all get along splendidly.
- 35 NV Cabernet Sauvignon/Cabernet Franc/Syrah/Lemberger/Malbec, Two Mountain Winery, "Hidden Horse VII," Washington 10.00 / 4.90
- Lemberger (also known as Zweigelt) is a hidden Washington State gem. When blended, the results are unforgettable.
- 37 2009 Cabernet Sauvignon, BIN 36, Central Coast, California 8.00 / 3.90
Great structure and balance are beyond apparent in this sophisticated, dark, brooding taste adventure. Minerals, rocks and dark berries galore.

LOW DOWN DIRTY REDS: PART DEUX

In this installment of the LDDR, we "dig in" and explore the dirty, earthy, funky side of Italy, Spain and France

16.70

- 38 2008 Gaglioppo, Ciro, Librandi, Italy 8.00 / 3.90
Bright, cheerful orange peel and bitter almonds along side wet hay and glove leather, soft tannins and hints of ripe plum with just a hint of nutmeg make this a favorite.
- 39 2008 Montepulciano, Barba, "Colle Morino," Montepulciano d'Abruzzo, Italy 7.25 / 3.55
It's silly, but we can't stop sniffing this glass of wine. Hints of tea, coffee, black pepper, orange peel, bergamot, cherries, strawberries, and forest floor...to start.
- 40 2005 Bobal, Bodegas Vereda Real, "Bobalia" Utiel-Requena, Spain 10.00 / 4.90
Start with blackberries & cola add sexy, soft tannins with hints of moss and pencil lead.
- 41 2009 Syrah/Grenache/Mourvedre, Chateau de Ciffre, St. Chinian, France 10.00 / 4.90
If this wine were a dance, it would be banned in 7 states - that's how dirty it is. Sensuous kirsch and pepper make drinking it down right dangerous.

HABLA ESPANOL, NEW SCHOOL V. OLD SCHOOL

South America is the hottest new wine region in the world while Spain is often called "The Sleeping Giant" because of its enormous promise in the wine world. Carinena, featured here, is one of the oldest growing regions in Europe but just now being discovered in America.

14.70

- 42 2010 Malbec, Marques del Ponte, San Juan, Argentina 7.50 / 3.15
Amazing rich chocolate covered cherries and deep, dark black pepper.
- 43 2010 Cabernet Sauvignon/Malbec, Dos Fincas, Valle de Uco, Argentina 7.50 / 3.70
Plump fresh figs, blueberries and spice all pitch in and make this full bodied, velvet-soft sipper a winner.
- 44 2007 Tempranillo, CariVin, Carinena, Spain 8.25 / 4.10
This is a full bodied version of the famous Spanish grape. Coffee, pepper, dark chocolate and cherry cordial will catch your eye, the soft, approachable texture will keep it.
- 45 2008 Garnacha, Aviva, "Granate," Campo di Borja, Spain 9.00 / 3.75
Raspberry cordial, black pepper and leather make this robust offering a must-have.

SEXY REDS

This seductive flight celebrates smooth texture, voluptuous mouth feel and flavors that deliver a completely satisfying experience. Oh yeah, a little spice thrown in just to keep things interesting.

17.65

- 46 2007 Merlot, BIN 36, California 8.00 / 3.90
Merlot with an attitude! Built with a firm structure, and a core of mocha scented dark fruit and minerals.
- 47 2009 Zinfandel/Petite Sirah/Carignan, Laurel Glen, "Reds," Lodi, California 7.50 / 3.70
Juicy, spicy and long on personality, this blackberry jam-scented package is all tied up with chocolate and baking spice.
- 48 2007 Proprietary Red (Cabernet Sauvignon/Syrah/Petite Sirah/Petit Verdot/Merlot) Duncan & Sachs, "D&S," California 12.50 / 6.15
- Full-bodied with a mouth-filling smooth texture. Loaded with ripe blackberries, dark plums, leather, dark chocolate, earthy minerals and a long satisfying finish.
- 49 2009 Petite Sirah, Pennywise, California 7.25 / 3.00
Curvy, soft and silky! This is a big, fruity package that doesn't lack sophistication. Spicy cardomon, dark chocolate, vanilla and blackberries.
